

Annual Revitalization Retreat

Camp Monroe

January 28-29th, 2016

Speaker and Presenter:
Rev. Dr. Jerry Cannon,
C.N. Jenkins Memorial Church
in Charlotte

“Krispy Kreme/Barbeque/NASCAR/Bud Light”- Doing Evangelism in a Culturally Diverse Context

- Explore principles and perceptions of congregational transformation
- Look through the lens of geographical, cultural and generational norms
- Reclaim your own stories of transformation and of God’s redemptive mission found in scripture.
- Engage evangelism concepts taught by Bill Easum – Sacred Cows Make Gourmet Burgers; Thom Rainer - Autopsy of a Deceased Church; Craig Groeschel – IT/How Churches and Leaders can get IT and keep IT.

Monroe Camp & Retreat Center

24501 Camp Rd; Laurel Hill, NC 28351

Beginning Thursday, January 28th with registration 11:30, lunch noon.
Sessions 1-8:30pm.

Continuing Friday, Jan 29th breakfast at 8am with sessions from 9am to lunch at noon.

Sponsored by the Committee for Church Revitalization and Transformation

Our Presbytery’s CCRT Retreats provide time away for reflection, education, sharing of ideas, fellowship with friends and colleagues, prayer and worship together, and fun.

Come join us!

Retreat participants will:

- Explore revitalization through interactive, meaningful exercises
- Consider their own ministry context
- Share proven ideas with each other
- Create plans to take back home and put into action

COST AND REGISTRATION

$50 Per Person (includes meals and lodging at Monroe)

Only $25 for subsequent registrations from the same congregation

Register by January 6th - Contact De Scott
dls67@presbycc.org - (910) 862-8300