

Presbyterians Utilizing Servant Hands

Join P.U.S.H. Week

Oct 30 - Nov 4, 2017

Time to love our neighbor as ourselves
by pushing forward the restoration of flooded homes in time for the holidays.

We are calling all Coastal Carolina Presbyterians to PUSH yourself out to volunteer in Hurricane Matthew Recovery work

- Can you Push a paint brush?
- Can you Push a mower?
- Can you Push yourself to follow instructions?
- Can you Push some siding up on the house?

Are you a Presbyterian ready to Utimize your Servant Hands to help survivors rebuild? Then please sign up now for a day of service to help get some families home for the holidays.

Pre-Registration required at www.presbycc.org by Oct 16

What kind of work? General light home construction & painting. Possible demolition (muck out). UMCOR will direct all work.

Where? When registering, you pick to work in Fayetteville or Lumberton. Exact address is sent to registered persons one week ahead of time.

When? Arrive by 9AM for orientation, Finish between 4:30 & 5PM. You may work one day, or several days, whatever works for you! Lunch and refreshments will be provided each day by a church.

Who? Any able bodied, willing person who is 16 years or older, limit of 25 persons per day at each city. Contact Laura Lupton (910-818-9938) or Clarence Page (910-301-1088) for information. Register online at www.presbycc.org today.

